President Thirkield's Showing for Howard University.

MEETING OF THE TRUSTEES

Gratifying Response of Student Body to New Facilities Noted. Standards Raised.

The semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees of Howard University was held yesterday afternoon, with Justice Job Barnard, president of the board, in the chair. The trustees consist of Chief Justice Stanton J. Peelle, Rev. Charles Wood, Rev. Charles H. Richards of New fork city, Justice Thomas H. Anderson, Justice George W. Atkinson, Dr. John R. Francis, Dr. F. J. Grimke, Booker T. Washington, William V. Cox, Henry M. Baker, Dr. J. H. N. Waring, Dr. Marcus Wheatland of Newport, R. I. John T. Emlen of Philadelphia, Pa.; J C. Napler, President W. P. Thirkield, Secretary George William Cook and Treasurer E. L. Parks.

The report of President Thirkield showed continued prosperity in the university. He commends the large student body for good order and devotion to scholastic work. With over 1,100 men enrolled, most of them rooming in the city, no serious case of infraction of law or order has een reported. The deans meet their departments Sunday in the study of the Bible, and classes in Bible study and religious work are regularly conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A President Thirkield reports a fine ex pression of the religious experience of he students, as shown Christmas eve, when nearly fifty spent several hours singing carols and Christmas hymns about the campus and through the wards of the hospital and in the alleys of the
